WILLIAM AND MARY DEBATERS FALL BEFORE RANDOLPH-MACON

Ashlanders Gain Both Ends of Dual Contest
by Votes of Two to One

The Triangular Debate that was to have been held last Friday was unavoidably forfeited by Hampden-Sidney. Thursday a telegram was received by the local debate manager from the president of the debate council of Hampden-Sidney, and Randolph-Macon was also informed of Hampden-Sidney's forfeiture. At the last moment an arrangement was made with Randolph-Macon for their team to be sent to Williamsburg, and so instead of the triangular debate a double dual debate took place in which Randolph-Macon was returned victorious.

The affirmative side of the question, Resolved, That the United States should abandon the Monroe Doctrine as its governing policy in international relations, was upheld by the home teams. At William and Mary Mr. G. L. Ferguson and Mr. K. L. Combs represented the home team, while Mr. W. H. Dunn and Mr. W. W. Beasley composed that of Randolph-Macon. Mr. W. W. Winsbro was the presiding officer and welcomed the audience with a few well chosen words in which he told of the nature of the debate. All the debaters had excellent speeches and delivered their arguments with a great deal of force. The work of Ferguson and Beasley was especially good both in main speech and rebuttal, and the audience showed their appreciation by their hearty applause. Mr. Joyner of William and Mary and Mr. Mormon of Randolph-Macon were the timekeepers and Mr. J. P. Ingle, chief marshal. Dr. C. H. Davis, Mr. C. A. Sydnor, and Mr. E. Ruffin Jones acted as judges and when their decision was rendered Randolph-Macon was found to have won by two votes to one.

At Ashland the local debaters met the same fate. A two to one vote gave Randolph-Macon the second victory. Messrs. H. H. Simms and F. D. G. Ribble upheld the negative for William and Mary and were opposed by Mr. Potts and Mr. Rosenberg of Randolph-Macon. Potts did best for the Yellow Jackets while Simms showed that no mistake has been made in placing him on both teams.

INDIANS HAND OUT BLANKS TO THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY TEAM

Four Runs Scored in First Innings are Sufficient to Land Second Game

In the first frame the Indians drove out sufficient clouts to score three runs, to which another was added in the second, and Union Theological Seminary was defeated by William and Mary by a 4 to 0 score here Saturday in the second game of the season.

The Theologs were retired in one, two, three order for the first five stanzas. During this time Garnett struck out twelve of the fifteen men facing him.

Heflin singled at the opening of the game, was sacrificed by Newton but was out at third on a fielder's choice. With M. Williams on first Stryker doubled, scoring Williams. Page Williams connected safely and Stryker jogged across the plate with the second run. Moncure landed on one of Anderson's offerings hard, driving out a triple and scoring Williams. Spencer ended the frame by striking out.

In the second inning Zehmer hit safely to start the frame. Garnett sacrificed and the backstop scored on Pharr's wild heave to first.

Spencer was sent in to take "Big Chief's" place in the sixth and in two frames, held the Theologs to a couple of bingles. He also struck out two.

Another recruit, Forehand, hurled the last two cantos allowing a single safety—an infield scratch. Two Theologs were on the bases in the

Twenty-two and Clouts Homer

In a game that was marked by little of the exciting, William and Mary Academy defeated Old Point Comfort College here on Friday evening by a score of 6 to 3. It was the local's first game of the season and, by the showing they made, we feel sure that with another week of hard practice, the team will administer as good a drubbing to Benedictine College next Saturday.

The visitors' runs came as the result of the only two errors made by the locals. They scored once in the second frame and twice again in the ninth. The locals' tallis were scattered over six innings.

The all-round work of hard-hitting "Monk" Ellis and the batting of Rowe were the features of the game. In the seventh inning "Monk" drove the ball over the center field fence for a homer. He also featured on the mound, retiring twenty-two men by the strike-out route.

The score by innings:

Mlle. DE BRABANT ENTERTAINS LARGE AUDIENCE IN CHAPEL

Belgian Girl Affords Delightful Evening With Both Songs and Dances

Mlle. Aimee de Brabant gave a unique and delightful entertainment in Chapel last Monday evening. The program consisted of familiar songs selected from French, Flemish and Walloon, and of Belgian folk dances. On the whole the performance brought us in close touch with Belgian life previous to the present war.

Mlle. de Brabant is a native of Belgium and is left an orphan with one brother. She was in Philadelphia when the war broke out. At the German invasion of Belgium her brother was taken prisoner, and she was unable to depend longer upon him for support. Their possessions at home were also destroyed. Under these circumstances Mlle. de Brabant conceived the heroic idea of earning her return passage and to ransom her brother. This is the object of her entertainments.

The platform was almost wholly destitute of stage accoutrements, the only furnishings visible were a spinning wheel and a Belgian flag stretched upon the wall in the rear, putting the scenery in keeping with her spirit of the performance; the rest was imaginary. Mlle. de Brabant appeared on the platform in Belgian dress appropriate to the selection being rendered, and with the hair flowing in two long plaits.

The opening number of the program was a Flemish song, "Soldot qui revient de la guerre." This was followed by a beautiful little romantic scene often witnessed in the Belgian streets. Mlle. de Brabant was sitting at the spinning wheel, supposed to be on the street, and sang "De Spinter," the words telling of a lover who was accepted by the "Spinning Girl" because she could get rid of him by no other means. Another very attractive selection was "T Kin dje in t water," (Child who Fell into Water), which ridicules in a mild manner some unthoughtful acts which often occur in daily life. The vocalist as a rule prefaced her selections with amusing words. The conclusion to the program was altogether impressive. Mlle. de Brabant wrapped in the Belgian flag made a heart-felt appeal to the audience as she sang the Belgian national anthem, "La Brabaconne" which was followed by the "Star Spangled Banner."

AGAIN THE DORMITORY

A petition to the Board of Visitors to reconsider their selection of the site for the new dormitory has been circulating among the students the past week. The petition asks that the dormitory be placed on the campus proper, preferably opposite the Library, "in a far pleasanter location from the point of view of residence" than the one chosen. The details of the "unpleasantness" of the site chosen are not entered into, neither do we propose to mention them here. The added advantages of the dormitory on the "Triangle" are varied, and far overshadow any additional cost in construction. The students are brought nearer the lecture rooms, the Library, the Gymnasium, the athletic field—in fact the centre of the college life, and the building is placed where it may be seen and recognized as the part of a growing college.

It is of significance that already every student in college has signed the petition. It is the voice of the men for whom the dormitory is to be built and for whom it will serve as a home. Surely it is worthy of consideration by the Board.

A MORAL

The misfortune of Hampden-Sidney is one by which we may profit. Evidently our sister college in selecting her team for the triangular debate failed to choose alternates.

Consequently when one of the debaters was suddenly compelled to leave college, the debate had to be forfeited, for there was no one to take the regular debater's place.

William and Mary would have been in the same fix if one of our debaters had been suddenly taken sick or called from college. We have never selected alternates, and fortunately never needed them, but that fortune shall always smile upon us is improbable. The selection of alternates is the rule rather than the exception, and the need of them has been shown us. That's all to the moral.

At the Chapel door there are at least two boards in the floor that creak. Their presence is known at every address in Chapel for of course there are some who come late and of course step on the boards as often as possible. It may seem like very little, but they certainly cause a big disturbance, and it wouldn't take much to fix them either.

NOTICE!

There will be a meeting of The Flat Hat staff on Monday night next, April 10, at seven o'clock in R. M. Newton's room, No 6 Brafferton.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Dr. J. S. Wilson was in Norfolk Saturday and Sunday.

Messrs. L. F. Games, C. C. Renick and H. W. Thorpe were visitors here last week.

The photographer finished his work for the Echo last week when the baseball and tennis pictures were taken.

IN CHEMISTRY

"What is the largest diamond, Mr. Warburton?"

"Do you count the joker, Doctor?"

The Spottswood Club meets tonight at the home of Dr. Wilson.

Mr. F. D. G. Ribb'e spent several days at home after the debate at Ashland.

Williamsburg is still in the wildest excitement, and the first step toward building the Du Pont plant is yet to be taken.

Signs of spring: A continuous line of clothiers and haberdashers in Brafferton.

Thursday night the debating team, which divide up into a Philomathean and a Phoenix team, held a preliminary contest. The two societies turned out well and supported their men with cheers. It was a no decision bout however.

Dr. E. LeB. Goodwin was in Washington last week.

It looks good to see the Freshman caps. Let us hope that the class of '20 will have some before April next year.

Mr. W. M. Brayshaw has been confined to the infirmary for several days on account of sickness.

NOTED OF THE INDIANS

The trip through North Carolina began Sunday. Captain Garnett, James, Spencer and Forehand, pitchers; Zehmer and Combs, catchers; M. H. Williams, Stryker, H. P. Williams and Heflin, infielders; Newton and Moncure, outfielders, with one of the pitchers; manager Presson and coach Draper are the men who made the trip. They will return next Sunday after playing six games.

William and Mary has the strike-out kings evidently. Sunday the Times-Dispatch had the following headlines: "Strikes Out Twenty-Two", and "Garnet Strikes Out Twelve in Five Innings". The former had reference to the phenomenal work of Monk Ellis against Old Point, and the latter is evident.

It might be noted in reference to the work of these pitchers that only fifteen men faced Garnett in the five innings, and that only eight fair balls were hit off Ellis in nine innings. Four of them went for hits.

"Monk" was there with the stick work too. Not satisfied with a single and a triple he drove one over the center field fence.

Rowe's hitting for the Academy shows promise of the development of a mighty good batter.

Moncure's triple was a slashing drive to right that sent the ball to the fence. Henry did some clever fielding too, and was the only man to get over one hit.

Newton made a beautiful catch in the ninth frame when he picked Anderson's short fly off his shoe tops.

The pitching of Spencer and Forehand was of high order and the Theologs were able to garner only three hits off their combined deliveries. Spencer allowed two of these.

After the first two innings Anderson got down to real work and allowed only three scattered hits. The Indians had however found him for enough in these innings to win the game with their pitchers going in such good form.

Saturday, Randolph-Macon just eked out a victory from the Howitzers by a 32 score. The winning run came in the ninth.

After Stryker rounded second on his double in the first some one asked the composition of the "Fat Boy's" protoplasm.

Painter accepted seven chances faultlessly at second for the Seminary. A busy day for a preacher.

FACULTY QUARTETTE

The students were given a surprise in Chapel Thursday morning when unheralded there appeared a quartette of faculty members. Only one selection was sung despite the prolonged applause, but we all hope to hear the quartette upon future occasions. Professors Bennett, Clark, Crawford and Keeble compose a quartette of no mean ability, and their singing Thursday was greatly appreciated. They also sang at the Methodist church on Sunday.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Dr. Bennett was the speaker before the Y. M. C. A. last week. "Faith", he declared "is one of the fundamental assets of the Christian. Any man can believe what he can see and understand, but it takes a Christian to have faith in what he has never seen, will never see, and cannot understand. Without faith nothing can be accomplished. We must learn to believe in ourselves, in others, and in God."

The Y. M. C. A. cabinet was busy last week filling out the annual report to be sent to the State Secretary.

The Thirty-Ninth International Convention of the Y. M. C. A. will be held in Cleveland, May 12-16.. Any members who are thinking of attending this convention or desire information concerning it should see Mr. Derring, the local president.

FORMER CAPTAIN IS COACH

B. D. Peachy, Jr., four years varsity outfielder, catcher and short-stop, and captain of the Championship 1914 team, is helping coach the first year team of the University of Virginia. "Bat," who was assistant coach here last year, carried quite a reputation with him to the University, but his four years of college baseball have been played. His services were enlisted as one of the coaches of the first year team which is having its first season. Rothwell, who played center field on the 1914 and '15 teams is playing in the field for first year men.

COLLEGE COMMENT

Harvard leads the colleges with the names of 155 graduates in the current edition of "Who's Who in America." Yale takes second place with 83 and Columbia is third with 52.

Trinity College was returned victorious in two debates. Swarthmore and Washington and Lee were both humbled by the North Carolina college.

Quite a novel plan has been instituted at Columbia University by the Class of '13. The member of the football team who attains the highest standard of scholarship will be awarded a silver cup.

A report from Vassar college shows that ninety-six students are earning their way through.

The junior classes of the Russian colleges have been called to the colors by the government.

Betts, Yale's great end, has been lost to the 1916 eleven. He was forced to leave the University on account of illness and will not be able to play football next year.

Elmer Oliphant of the U. S. Military Academy has won his A in football baseball, basketball and track. He is the first man to win his letter in all major sports.
